Attention, Subscribers.

The Mexico weekly LEDGER is one dollar a year in advance. We are anxious to hold all of our old subscribers and to materially increase the number of LEDGER readers and for that reason make the price, including postage, $1.00 per year in advance. We don't want Uncle Sam to deny the LEDGER the use of the mails and depend on our subscribers to stand by us in this matter. Unless you pay all arrearages and in advance we will be compelled to discontinue your LEDGER and let your account go to our collection department. Most of our patrons are expressing pleasure at the new ruling of the government.

AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS.

By Father Mac Corry on Tempera Prior to Local Option Election in Brookfield.

The following are extracts from an Corry, to the people of Brookfield before the local option election in that thousand of happy homes and his town. Father Mac Corry has been preaching local option in the State for

"A banquet was proclaimed in the embled. The flash of jewel answered the blaze of gem as lord and lady drank sparkling wine from goblets, and pledged the bealth of the Chaldean king. The revelry heightened, wine flowed more freely. Now the "Huzza, huzza, long live the the indignation of God must rest for king!" was heard. The blood, lashed ever and forever. The only cup it by the whip of wine, leaped madly through the purple channels of life. Now the flecked lip, the unsteady hand ever held out to man is thicker than and the staggering step; now the blearand subject, under the spur of the broken hearts is in the language of demon drink. The night wore on. Now modesty is thrown to the wind ever written it beats out with human and ribald jest and drunken jeer and bones on whiskey kegs for kettledrums laughter fill the air. But look, look and is the death march of the world on the fresco of the wall the hand of God is tracing out their doom. Now the invading army beats back the midnight hour the staggering footguards, who are powerless to defend steps of a drunken busband, and pity the palace gate, rushes in and puts to her as, with some virulent potion, death the revelvers and the king. she seeks to escape the fate of a drunk-Lord and lady he down in bloody death and lady he down in bloody death in one confused, disheveled heap, front, looks down into the limpid while tankards of wine spilled out their foontents to mix with buman blood. When a medicine has stood the test for a period of more than two generations and is then more popular than ever, there can be no doubt of its merit. This is the record of S. S. S. Its period of existence is marked by a long line of cures of blood and skin diseases of every character, and its value in the treatment of such troubles has become so well known that it is today the most extensively used blood medicine on the market. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other troubles due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It counteracts and drives out the poisons, humors and germs, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anaemic, and unable to furnish the body with the nourishment and strength it needs, S. S. S. supplies it with the healthful properties and acts splendidly in toning up and reinvigorating the system. It goes down to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches inherited taints on which the ordinary blood medicines have no effect. Not only is S. S. s. certain in its results, but it is at the same time an absolutely safe remedy. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of known healing and curative value. It does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form to damage the delicate parts of the system, and may be used by children with the same good results and perfect safety as by older people. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth by its forty years of successful service. If you are in need of a blood purifier for any cause begin the use of S. S. S., write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give without charge any special medical advice that is required.

very delicious hot chocolate was served by Mrs. Edward Carter. Mrs. R. V. Montague entertained ost pleasantly, Wednesday afternoon, with a tea for her guest, Miss Florence Barrison, of St. Louis. These ladies, together with Mrs. Howard Bailoy, received their friends after a pleasantly informal fashion. Mesdames J. T. Johnson and P. M. White assisted in making things pleasant and a delightfully "chatty" time was enjoyed by all. The three receiving ladies were handsomely gowned and wore corsage bouquets of pink roses. In the dining room refreshments were served by Mrs. L. B. Hawthorne and Mrs. W. L. Harper who presided at the table with Miss Byrd Locke as saistant. The dining room, from which the day light was excluded, was bounded as follows: Be illuminated by candles resting in tall, section 25, run thence pink silk-topped scences placed on the table and mantel. The oriel window was banked with ferns and the table coked beautiful with its decorations of pink roses and ferns and pink or pink roses and ferns and pink shaded candles. A two course lunch was served, the ice cream and cake being followed by hot chocolate, coffee, nuts and bon-bors.
